

"MEDICINE" FOR LIVE STOCK.

Editor Keowee Courier: A reader says the farmers of his section are paying out money unnecessarily for so-called "stock foods," and wants us to suggest a formula for a stock food.

We have often stated that we do not believe live stock need medicines unless they are sick, and if they are sick they should have the medicines best suited to the diseases from which they are suffering. The "bit- ters," the "purging" and "bleeding" practiced at intervals by our fore- fathers were based on the same idea which gave rise to the use of "con- dition powders" or condimental "stock foods" for live stock. These so-called stock foods give little or no returns for the money expended. It is true that animals sometimes need medicines, but it is impossible to make a mixture to suit all the cases arising on the farm. It is not possible to even make up a tonic powder which should be used in all cases when animals are "out of con- dition." The best tonics are regular exercise, good care and liberal feed- ing on the right sort of feeds, and these are better than any and all medicines in such cases. Even if it were possible to make up a tonic powder for each of such cases, then there is the difficulty of getting the animals to take the medicines in their feeds. The manufacturer knows that their compounds must be ready to eat with the animals' feed or there would be little sale for them; hence they use materials that the animals will take, but which, as a rule, are of little or no value in the doses given. One has only to study the composition of these so- called stock foods to realize the truth of the foregoing statement. In this connection it is well also to re- member that a medicine that will do no harm (when given in a wrong case) will do no good when given with a full understanding of the disease. The best general medicinal tonics of a vegetable nature are al- most universally bitter, and the ani- mals will not take them in sufficient doses in their feeds.

For the benefit of the person mak- ing this inquiry, and for the effect it may have on the owners of live stock, rather than for any good it will do as generally used, we may suggest a tonic powder. It is as good as, or better than, the so- called "stock foods" on the market, but it will not be needed where good care and feeding are practiced, nor will it take the place of these in any case:

Upper Division Union Meeting.

The union meeting of the upper division of Beaverdam Baptist As- sociation met with Bethlehem church Saturday morning, May 30. After devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. J. B. Tramel, delegates from the various churches were enrolled. The first query was then taken up and was discussed by Revs. D. F. Carter, J. B. Tramel, J. H. Clark and M. G. Holland.

The second query was discussed by Rev. D. F. Carter. After Rev. Carter had discussed this query for about 30 minutes, a motion was made that the union adjourn one hour for dinner.

After the hour's recess the union reconvened, and the second query was again taken up by Rev. D. F. Carter. It was also discussed by Revs. L. M. Lyda, L. D. Mitchell and J. H. Clark.

The last query for the afternoon was discussed by Revs. L. D. Mit- chell, L. M. Lyda, D. F. Carter and W. H. Nicholson.

After this discussion a collection was taken for State missions. The union then adjourned until 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and the ex- ercises at that time were opened by Rev. J. H. Clark.

After devotional exercises the sub- ject, "The churches now and 20 years ago," was discussed by Revs. M. Cobb and D. F. Carter.

Rev. L. D. Mitchell then preached the missionary sermon. He took as his text Luke 9:37.

After the sermon a collection was taken for State missions, and the union adjourned until 2 o'clock.

The feature of the afternoon ses- sion was a Sunday school rally. The clerk was appointed to leave after dinner, and therefore cannot give an account of the proceedings of this rally.

SAYS SULPHUR IS SURE TO RELIEVE ITCHING ECZEMA.
Get An Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Skin Eruptions Right Up.

Any breaking out or irritation on the face, arms, legs or body when accompanied by itching, or when the skin is dry and feverish, can be read- ily overcome by applying a little bold-sulphur cream, says a noted dermatologist.

He informs us that bold-sulphur instantly allays the angry itching and irritation and soothes and heals the eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position for many years in the treatment of cutaneous disorders because of its parasite-de- stroying property. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in treat- ing the irritable and inflammatory skin affections. While not always establishing a permanent cure, it never fails to subdue the itching ir- ritation and drive the eczema away, and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Those troubled should obtain at any pharmacy an ounce of bold-sul- phur cream, which is applied to the affected parts in the same manner as an ordinary cold cream. It isn't un- pleasant and the prompt relief af- forded, particularly in itching ecze- ma, proves very welcome.—Adv.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

In Memory of E. A. Barron.
Bro. Barron was born and reared in the eastern part of Oconee county, on the banks of Keowee river, three miles north of Old Pickens Court House. He was in his 65th year, having been born June 11, 1846.

Early in life he joined the Baptist church at Crow Creek, Pickens county, and became a deacon in that church. He was twice married, first to Miss Adelaide Nimmons, of Pick- ens county, and unto them two chil- dren were born—Stiles and Miss Stella Barron, of Seneca. His sec- ond wife was Miss Lou McMahan, of Oconee county, and to this union two children were born—Miss Olivia Barron, of Seneca, and Alexander Barron, who died in infancy.

Bro. Barron was active in every- thing that was for the upbuilding of his community, always taking a firm stand in politics, but the one thing that characterized him above most of his fellow-men was the devotion to organized effort on the part of farm- ers. He was a member of the Grange way back in 1870 and 1880. He was a charter member of the Farmers' Alliance at High Falls in 1888 and remained a true member of that organization until it was merged into the Farmers' Union in 1904. He was business agent of High Falls Lodge until he moved near Fairview about 20 years ago, and he was then elected business agent for Fairview lodge, and held that office until his death.

Whereas, it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to re- move from our midst Bro. E. A. Barron by death, on the 28th day of February, 1914; be it therefore re- solved:

1. That Fairview Union has lost one of its most trusted stand-bys and ardent supporters—one to whom we could always look for guidance and advice.

2. That the community has lost a valuable citizen, the county a man who always had his best interests at heart, and his family a wise coun- sellor, true husband and father. May God's richest blessings rest upon them.

3. That a page in our minutes be spread to his memory and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the fam- ily of the deceased and to the county papers for publication.

I had backaches, my heart palpitated and mornings I felt all worn-out. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills that I got at Dr. Bell's drug store. They benefited me in every way. ## Are We Behind the Times?

South Carolina had fewer tele- phones per thousand of population in 1912 than any other State in the Union, according to a bulletin re- cently issued by the bureau of the census on telephones and telegraphs.

Doubtless on account of the large proportion of negroes in their popu- lations, all the Southern States rank comparatively low in per capita use of the telephone.

South Carolina had only 21 in- struments per thousand of popula- tion in 1912, North Carolina only 29, Louisiana only 27, and Mississippi only 25, as compared with 127 in Minnesota, 171 in Iowa, 88 in Mon- tana, 121 in Vermont and 101 in New York.

WHEN WOMEN VOTE.

The president of the General Fed- eration of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Texas, says of woman's suffrage: "I approve of it, because I think the highest type of woman is interested in politics and everything that is vital to life."

A "Justice Bell" is to be presented to the Pennsylvania Woman Suf- frage Association. It is to be of the same size and shape as the famous Liberty Bell, and will be carried un- der a guard of honor to every county in the State. Its first peal will ring out when Pennsylvania women are enfranchised, which event, it is con- fidently expected, will occur in No- vember, 1915. The inscription on the old Liberty Bell, by a strange coincidence, is "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all the inhabitants thereof," and this quota- tion from Deuteronomy is to be made applicable for woman's free- dom also.

But 16 per cent of the male voters of Dallas, Texas, cast their ballots at the last election. Perhaps the co- operation of Texas women voters will have a beneficial effect in arous- ing interest to the moral duty of participation in public questions, and inspire men with a sense of the importance of the vote.

Southern Opinions.

Opinions held by prominent edu- cators of Georgia regarding woman suffrage, as published in a recent issue of the Macon Telegraph, are of much interest:

"Lawton B. Evans gave a very con- cise statement on the subject: "I don't believe in unlimited suffrage for the people at large," he said, "but there ought to be property and educational qualifications, and it should be unlimited as to sex. All men should not be allowed to vote, and all women should not be ex- cluded from voting. If the right kind of women are allowed to vote it will mean a great deal for the edu- cational side of the country. I have a neighbor," he continued, in explanation of his point, "who is an intelligent and capable business woman. She is worth millions of taxable property. She has a coach- man, a gardener and a butler who own not a dollar, yet those illiterate men are allowed to vote on matters that relate to the disposition of her property, such as taxes, and she is not allowed to vote at all. She should not be disqualified just be- cause she is a woman. Every one who owns property and is educated should be eligible to suffrage."

Ralph Newton, of Fort Valley, first vice president of the Georgia Educational Association, says he used to be against it, but is about to be persuaded. "The time is com- ing," he said, "when we will have it, especially for women who own property, widows and unmarried women, who have no voice in the government. I don't approve of the propaganda of the militants, and don't think that sort of agitation is going to do any good. Suffrage will no doubt do the schools a great deal of good," he concluded, "and I think most educational leaders are for it."

"My opinion," said Dr. W. K. Tate, former president of the Southern Educational Association, "is that it is a good thing. I believe the women ought to have it; anyway, it is coming, and there is no use arguing about it."

THE WAR OF BUSINESS.

Clear Eye, Strong Arm, Good Health, Are Secrets of Health.

The man with the punch, both mental and physical, is the big busi- ness success of to-day.

His bodily health is the force be- hind his business possibilities.

The business world has no time to listen to the grouch story.

Sour stomach, malaria, indiges- tion, coated tongue and a hundred other bodily ills come from an out- of-order liver.

Calomel used to be considered the only relief. Modern medical science has provided a far milder and more pleasant form of liver relief in CARSWELL'S LIVER-AID, a purely vegetable liquid remedy.

A large bottle can be had for 50 cents at Dr. J. W. Bell's drug store, where the purchase price will be promptly returned in case you wish it after trying this wonderful rem- edy.—Adv.
